MUST FIX CANAL TOLLS NOW, SAYS GOETHALS

Tells Senate Committee That Immediate Action Is Needed.

READY FOR SHIPS IN 1913

Repeats That the Kaiser Said That the Canal Should Be Fortified.

WASHINGTON, March 29.-Col. George W. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama Canal, appeared this afternoon before the Senate Committee on Interoceanic

"I would like to emphasize the importance of legislation at this session of Congress," said the Colonel, "for the organization of an operating force, for the forming of a system of government and the reduction in the working force.

"It is necessary that the question of tolls be settled at this session of Congress, Col. Goethals added. "What do you recommend as to the disposition of 30,000 workers on the canal? asked Senator Bristow of Kansas. "Would you drive them off?" "They are there incident to the canal construction," answered Col. Goethals, "We tried for two years to raise vegetables for our employees, but gave it up that we might complete the canal within the appropriation." In answer to questions Col. Goethals confirmed published reports of his interview with the German Emperor "Did the Emperor say we should strongly fortify the canal?" asked Senator Brande-

"Yes, that is what he said."

"If American Vessels were given free use of the Canal receipts would be reduced," said Col. Goethals. "I want to get all the money possible out of the canal to aid in payment of interest on the cost

"As to fortifications," he said, "we plan to have them completed when the work on the canal is finished. Coaling stations at the zone should be operated by the Government. The navy will need a coal station there. Private corporations control the coal situation there now. It trol the coal situation there now. It will be necessary to keep up our commissary and cold storage for our employees. There should be Government dry docks and machine shops. We should have a division of troops there at all times.*

Col. Goethals does not favor the exclusion from the canal of steamships in which railroad companies hold interest. Without such discrimination there would be large revenues. He urged that the tolls be fixed as soon as possible.

"When do you expect to complete the canal?" asked Senator O'Gorman.

"I expect to put ships through in August canal?" asked Senator O'Gorman.

"I expect to put ships through in August or September, 1913," answered Col. Goethals. "We propose to take entire charge of steamers passing through the locks, and not a wheel will turn on such vessels. This is to safeguard the locks. In time of threatened war if steamers were allowed to use their own power in the locks a mistake in a signal to the engine room might cause damage to the locks that would be of incalculable injury to this country."

Bill That Makes That Annual Appropriation May Pass the House.

WASHINGTON, March 29 .- A good roads oill, involving an annual appropriation of $12,000,000, will probably be passed by the Democratic House. A bill under- Senate Passes the McCumber Substood to have the approval of Democratic leaders was introduced to-day by Representative Shackleford of Missouri. was referred to the Committee on Agriculture and will soon be reported for action by the House.

The bill provides for the improvement of roads used by rural free delivery carriers. The roads so used are divided into classes and an allowance of $10, $20 and $30 a mile, respectively, is made available, according to the length and condition of the roads. The money thus allowed is to be expended by the director of good roads of the Department of Agriculture on certifications made by the Postmaster-General.

STEEL INQUIRY CONCLUDED

No More Public Hearings-Frank A. Munsey the Last Witness.

WASHINGTON, March 29. - A sigh of relief came from the House to-day when it became known that public hearings of the special steel committee had been concluded. This inquiry has dragged along nearly a year and has consumed so much money that the House leaders have been deterred from authorizing similar inquiries into the affairs of other corpora-

The steel investigation was begun at a time when the Taft Administration was contemplating the possibility of proceed-ing against the United States Steel Corporation. The inquiry had barely got under way when the Government steel bill was filed. House leaders were in favor of recalling the resolution authorizing the inquiry, but Representative Stanley of Kentucky, chairman of the committee, who is a candidate for the Senate, urged that he would be seriously embarrassed in his State if such action was taken by the House.

Frank A. Munsey, the publisher, appeared before the committee to-day. He was called to explain where he got certain information bearing on the operations of the Steel Corporation that was printed in one of his publications. Mr. Munsey testified that the figures were obtained from several sources. under way when the Government

BOWMAN MAY LOSE HIS SEAT.

House Committee Says His Election Was Accomplished by Gross Frauds.

WASHINGTON, March 29.-Representalose his seat if the House concurs in a report ordered to-day by the Committee on sion Elections. By a vote of 4 to 2 the committee held that the election of Mr. Bowman was accomplished by "gross frauds." and it recommended that he be unseated The evidence in the case shows that Mr. Bowman expended $11,000 in the course of his campaign for election. Of this $2,500 was paid to "watchers" at the polls. Mr. Bowman also paid $700 for the use of a taxicab.

This is Mr. Bowman's first term. His right to occupy the seat was contested by George R. McLean, a Democrat. The committee has not determined whether it recommend that Mr. McLean be seated. This phase of the case will be considered at a meeting of the committee to be held

That the clause in the Hay-Pauncefote Panama Canal treaty setting forth that the "canal shall be free and open to teh vessels of all nations observing these rules on terms of entire equality, so there shall be no discrimination in respect of the conditions or charges of traffic or otherwise," will be a trouble maker in the fixing of tolls on the canal was foreshadowed at a meeting of the Senate Interoceanic Canals Committee.

"I think that under the treaty," said Senator Bristow, "we could remit tolls paid by American vessels in the coastwise service. The treaty does not affect tolls imposed on our vessels, and the Government might remit tolls, allowing free passage, or charge higher tolls than were assessed on foreign vessels."

"The treaty says we shall not discrim-assessed on foreign vessels."

"The treaty says we shall not discriminate among foreign nations," said Senator O'Gorman of New York, "but it does not say we shall give them all the advantages we give our own vessels. We dealt in the treaty with our relations with other countries. It was not necessary to deal with our relations with ourselves."

Having Highly Protected The death rate among the workers in protected industries increases as the tariff rate increases, according to Representative Townsend of New Jersey, who spoke on the Democratic wool bill this afternoon. Mr. Townsend recently made a trip to Lawrence, Mass., and made a first hand investigation of conditions there.

"It may appear to great lawyers," said Senator Page of Vermont, "that the treaty gives the United States the right to discriminate in favor of American vessels, but to the mind of the average citizen it would appear there could be no discrimination."

"There are two views," said Chairman Brandegee of Connecticut. "One that we cannot discriminate among foreign nations and the other that we place ourselves on the same plane with foreign nations and cannot discriminate in favor of United States vessels."

There is a strong division of cpinion on the clause in both branches of Congress.

ADDS $30,000,000 TO ROLL

Veterans Having an Annual Income of $2,400 Are Excluded From Benefits of the Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 29 .- After a debate of eight hours the Senate to-night rejected the Sherwood dollar a day pension bill, which carried an additional expenditure of $75,000,000, and adopted Senator Mc-Cumber's substitute measure, which is based on both age and service and which vote on the McCumber substitute was 44 to 21, and on the final passage of the bill had already passed the House, and the pension legislation will now be thrown into conference.

Senator Brown of Nebraska, a friend of the Sherwood bill, succeeded in securing the adoption of an amendment to the McCumber substitute which pensions at $30 per month any soldier of the civil war was wounded in battle and is now unfit for manual labor by reason thereof, or who from disease incurred in duty has been rendered unable to perform manual labor. This is an elastic provision and may increase the expenditures from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000 or even more annually.

The Senate also adopted an amendment from the benefits of the bill all persons who have an annual income of $2,4000 The McCumber bill provides that any soldier who served ninety days or more shall be placed on the pension rolls on the following basis of service:

recting the Commissioner of Pensions in his next annual report to make a list of the pensioners in each county in every tive Charles C. Bowman of the Eleventh State and Territory of the United States Pennsylvania district, a Republican, will giving the pensioner's post office address, amount of pension and cause for the pen-

The first test came on Senator Brown's amendment, pensioning soldiers wounded in battle or who incurred disease in line of duty which resulted in disability making them unable to perform manual labor. This was adopted by a vote of 39 to 24, and except for this action the McCumber substitute might have been endangered!
